SBI takes Rs 7,250cr equity in Yes Bank

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The State Bank of India has infused Rs 7,250 crore in Yes Bank in a share swap deal which will help it to dilute its stake in the lender. The swap deal is part of SBI’s plans to exit from non-performing assets (NPAs) and is the first of its kind in the country. The move will also help SBI to cut its provisioning costs and reduce the burden of bad loans.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has extended the deadline for the auction of Radio Television of India (RTI) spectrum to the fourth quarter of the current financial year to March 2023, from the previous deadline of December 2022.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: A new vehicle registration policy will be announced by the government soon, which will help to reduce the registration process for new vehicles. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Mumbai: The government has announced a new policy for the registration of vehicles in the country, which will help to reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration. The policy will allow for online registration and also reduce the number of papers required to be submitted for registration.